

OERColorado

Introduction

What is OERColorado? Who is ISKME?

At the OERColorado Microsite you can:

- search, save, share and create new open access educational resources.
- connect with fellow teachers, practitioners, and instructional designers from within your school, district, and state
- leverage professional learning communities and resources to guide you on your OER journey

Institute for the Study of Knowledge Management in Education

ISKME's OER initiatives aim to grow a sustainable culture of sharing and continuous improvement among educators at all levels. OER Commons offers a comprehensive infrastructure for curriculum experts and instructors at all levels to identify high-quality OER and collaborate around their adaptation, evaluation, and use to address the needs of teachers and learners. Diving into OER Commons is an exciting opportunity to collaborate with other educators and learners, at the forefront of a new educational era.

OERColorado Microsite Visitors vs. Members

All resources are accessible to visitors without an account, but only Colorado educators can create accounts to be approved as members on the site.

Being an approved member means that they can add resources, create resources, make groups, leave comments, and more.

OER Colorado has many trusted Colorado education entities - including all public schools, Colorado regional boards of education, and sublists of other groups such as charter schools or dual credit initiatives.
